*Message from the Worshipful Master
W .: M .: Russell Fisher*

I would like to thank everyone again for the warm welcome I received as I took my new station in the east. My main focus this year is to bring our families closer together with fun events on family nights. I'm also looking forward to the upcoming Ezra Solomon merge. Together we can make good things better.

This month on Monday the 25th starting at 6:30 we will be having a bonfire in our fire pit, horseshoes, bean bag toss with burgers and hotdogs on the grill.

As usual if anyone has any suggestions or special requests I'm always a phone call away. I'm looking forward to seeing everyone there!

Greetings from the Senior Warden!

W .: David Straining

First I would like to start off with thanking the craft for having the confidence and trust in me by electing me to serve at your Will and pleasure as Senior Warden of Solomon Lodge.

2021 looks like we will still be dealing with the COVID 19 mess again. Our main goal will be to help with keeping us safe from this virus and will help the lodge with following all guidelines that are required to do so. Will Help and support the Worshipful Master and brothers so Solomon has a Prosperous year.

Would like to welcome our brothers with open arms from Ezra Lodge if anything I can do to help you with the transition of being a brother of Solomon don't hesitate to ask. In closing I would like to say it was a honor and privilege serving as your Treasurer for the last Five year's.

Fraternally,

Greetings from the Junior Warden!

Bro. David Kiraly

I am honored and proud to be Solomon No, 20's elected Junior Warden for 2021 and look forward to my new responsibilities. With the assistance of my very capable stewards, we will keep the lodge well fed and taken care of.

Let's not forget the trial that was 2020. Despite all the trials the lodge stayed strong. As we continue to band as brothers, we will keep the lodge even stronger this year and offer our support to any deserving brother or family in need.

I look forward to a great year.

Closing Remarks: 2020

Greetings Brothers All!

So many things could be said about a year we faced head on, and there were a lot of hopes and dreams that COVID-19 restricted our Lodge from completing. There were family events planned and scrapped out of the concerns of health and safety, and I do apologize to the families because their involvement is just as important as every Brother's involvement.

Moving away from the early chaos and confusion of 2020, I do look forward to being able to watch the lodge evolve as we do year after year, and help as when the will and pleasure of Worshipful Master Russ calls on me, and my time permits. I've learned everyone does their best in their own capacity, and the Lodge is full of Brothers looking for the opportunity to keep the driving spirit of Masonic Knowledge running through Solomon Lodge. The benefits will attract new Masons for years to come.

Stay healthy and safe my Brothers, and may God bless you all!

Fraternally,

Jason Vymetal
